

Nick MANESH

Executive Director

Sydney Contracting Engineers

MORE THAN 50 YEARS IN CONSTRUCTION BUSINESS

Construction business leader with more than five decades of experience in Iran and Australia. Nick brings long-established knowledge of building trades, business management and painting operations to SCE. He has been part of Sydney Contracting Engineers since its inception in 2016, contributing experience built through decades of owning and managing construction businesses.

CAREER HISTORY

Sydney Contracting Engineers | Since inception in 2016

Executive Director within SCE's leadership team. His construction-business background supports the company's building, civil and remedial operations and its established family foundation in construction.

World of Colour Painting Services | Australia, from 1998

Managed the Australian painting business, with experience across commercial, residential and industrial painting works.

Construction businesses | Iran

Established his first construction company in his mid-twenties. His earlier business history includes Nik Sazan, Gach Pooshan and Pars Saghf. The family's construction experience spans generations: Frank MANESH began working in his father's construction company at age 13.

CORE EXPERIENCE

Construction business ownership and management; commercial, residential and industrial painting; building-trades experience; long-term company leadership; and practical knowledge developed across Iranian and Australian construction environments.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING HISTORY

December 2019: Statement of Attainment - RIIWHS204D Work safely at heights.

2021-2022: Ventia / LAHC contractor inductions.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

scecorp.au/about-sce/sce-staff-nick-manesh/